Re: January 12, 2012, Complaint

Dear Azael Dythian Perales:

Your January 12, 2012, complaint to Executive Officer, Suzanne Ambrose, of the California State personnel Board, has been directed to me for response. Our review of materials submitted finds that action you request is outside the jurisdiction of SPB as established by the Civil Service Act. SPB does not have the authority to enforce a Superior Court order. Therefore, SPB will take no further action in this matter.

Re: Communication with the 2011-2012 San Francisco Civil Grand Jury

Dear Mr. Perales:

Thank you for your recent communications with the 2011-2012 San Francisco Civil Grand Jury. The Civil Grand Jury appreciates your communication and will take the matter under advisement.

As you may know, proceedings of the Civil Grand Jury are confidential. Findings and Recommendations of the Civil Grand Jury are published following submission to and approval by the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court. You may find reports published by the Civil Grand Jury on its website at <http://sfsuperiorcourt.org/index.aspx?page=212>.

Should the Grand Jury require additional information, we may contact you. Please be advised that any such contact would also be confidential under law.

Thank you again for contacting the 2011-2012 San Francisco Civil Grand Jury.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Perales:

The 2011-2012 Orange County Grand Jury received your correspondence. Your concerns will be carefully reviewed and considered.

The Grand Jury welcomes communication from members of the community. The Grand Jury will review the information provided in your letter. If the matter is within the legally permissible scope of its review powers and of sufficient priority to warrant further inquiry, it may confidentially contact those individuals who are able to provide information.

If, on the other hand, a matter is determined not to be within the Grand Jury's authority to investigate (e.g., a matter involving the federal or state government rather than local government, or a private dispute), or not of the highest priority considering the competing demands on the Grand Jury, there will be no further review by the Grand Jury.

The 2011-2012 Grand Jury appreciates and thanks you for your interest in its work and for your correspondence.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Perales:

On behalf of the Sacramento County Grand Jury, I acknowledge the receipt of your complaint.

The complaint submitted does not fall within the Sacramento County jurisdiction. The Grand Jury reviews all inquiries to determine whether to conduct an investigation or take any action. While the Jury takes each request seriously, not all can be investigated because of legal restrictions, resource limitations, or a variety of other reasons. By law, the work of the Grand Jury is confidential and we cannot respond individually regarding what action, if any, is decided upon with respect to your complaint. If your request is investigated, you may or may not be contacted by one of our committees. In all cases in which the Grand Jury takes formal action, its concerns and recommendations will appear in its final report issued by June 30 each year.

Thank you for taking the time to contact our office.

Dear Mr. Perales:

The Alameda County Grand Jury received your complaint on March 7, 2012. The Grand Jury welcomes communication from the public because citizens can provide valuable information to the Grand Jury regarding matters for investigation.

The information you have provided will be carefully reviewed to assist the Grand Jury in deciding what action, if any, to take. If the matter is determined not to be within the Grand Jury's authority to investigate (e.g., a matter involving federal or state agencies or institutions, courts or court decisions, or a private dispute), there will be no further contact by the Grand Jury. If the matter is within the legally permissible scope of the Grand Jury's investigative powers and warrants further investigation, the Grand Jury will confidentially contact those individuals or entities who may be able to provide additional information.

By law, the Grand Jury is precluded from communicating the results of its investigation, except in one of its formal public reports. All communications are considered, but may not result in any action or report by the Grand Jury.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Perales:

Your letter to the 2011-2012 Los Angeles County Civil Grand Jury, dated March 2, 2012, has been received. The Grand Jury's review of the issues raised in your letter may or may not result in an investigation, but in any event, this letter will probably be the only written response you will receive.

Please do not contact the Civil Grand Jury by telephone or in writing to inquire about the status of your matter. The Grand Jury is prohibited by law from communicating the results of any investigation to you personally, although a written report of all Grand Jury investigations is available to the general public when published at the end of June.

Please be advised that the Civil Grand Jury has no legal jurisdiction or authority to investigate federal agencies, state agencies, private entities, or the courts. Only local governments within Los Angeles County are subject to review by the Grand Jury.

Date Received 3/18/12

Complaint: California State Personnel Board

The Complaint alleges criminal violations contained in California Penal Code, Sections: 137(b), 140(a), 142: (4), 145, 146, 147, 148, 148.1, 149, 151, 153, 154, 155, 155.5, 165, 166, 181, 188, 401, 362, and 166. (4). It also alleges violation of California Civil Code Section 52.3 (a).

Authority for Investigation: None

Findings: The complaint addresses a State of California Government Agency. Attached civil documents indicate defendant as "California State Personnel Board." There are no documents or included information to indicate any connection to a government agency operating within the confines or Mariposa County.

Conclusions: This Grand Jury does not have investigative jurisdiction in this matter. California Penal Code Sections 925-933.6 limit oversight of government agencies whose jurisdiction encompasses all or part of the county where the Grand Jury is established.

Recommendations: No Mariposa County Grand Jury involvement in this matter.

Date: April 13, 2012

Complainant's Name: Mr. Azael Perales

Address: Po Box 501, Fullerton, Ca. 92836-0501

Thank you for submitting your written complaint correspondence to the Lassen County Grand Jury. All Citizen Complaints are treated as confidential correspondence. All persons who appear before the Civil Grand Jury or who communicate with the Civil Grand Jury in writing are protected by strict rules of confidentiality.

Communications from the public can provide valuable information to the Civil Grand Jury, which may prompt an investigation of a government agency. Any citizen may submit concerns regarding mistreatment, suspicious misconduct or inefficiencies to the Civil Grand Jury for consideration on a Citizen Complaint.

The Lassen County Civil Grand Jury, at its discretion, inquires into citizen complaints regarding government agencies and officials to identify practices in government that need improvement. The ultimate goal of the Civil Grand Jury is to improve government in Lassen County and make public officials responsive to the people.

Please be advised that;

- The Grand Jury does not investigate all complaints received. Investigations are at the discretion of the Grand Jury.
- Investigation of your complaint cannot be confirmed; all investigations remain confidential until the Civil Grand Jury decides to include the findings in the final report.
- Anonymous complaints may not be responded to if the Grand Jury is unable to contact you for additional information related to the complaint.
- The Grand Jury cannot investigate disputes between individual private parties.

Thank you again for your correspondence to the Lassen County Civil Grand Jury.

Re: Citizen Complaint

Dear Mr. Perales

Your correspondence of March 2, 2012, has been received by the Monterey County Civil Grand Jury. Thank you for taking the time and making the effort to bring this matter to our attention. The matter will be immediately referred to the appropriate committee for review. After reviewing this matter, the committee will report back to the full Grand Jury, and the Grand Jury as a whole will decide whether or not to pursue an investigation.

The Grand Jury is prohibited by law from disclosing any aspect of an inquiry except as published in a final report. Because of this, you will not receive any oral or written acknowledgement from the Grand Jury as to whether an investigation was or was not conducted regarding this matter. If additional information is needed, you will be contacted by the Grand Jury. The final report is a public document, and is kept on file with the Clerk of the Superior Court when published.

Re: Acknowledgment of Request for Investigation by the Marin County Civil Grand Jury

Dear Azael:

I am returning your documentation sent to me recently. I passed it by my Legal department and we all agree that we most likely received this in error. I am returning your documentation in case you want to send it elsewhere.

I hope your Grand Jury has been as exceptional as ours has been here in Marin.

Sincerely,

Michael M. Chernock, Foreperson
2011-2012 Marin County Civil Grand Jury
